

A

COMPARISON OF SUPERGRADES TO TOTAL PERSONNEL
U. S. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES AS OF 1 FEBRUARY 1952

Agency	Total Personnel	Total Supergrades	Percent of Supergrades To Total Personnel
Small Defense Plants Admin.			9.620
Office of Defense Mobilization			6.540
Natl. Security Resources Board			5.802
Defense Transport Administration			5.291
National Security Council			4.761
Defense Production Administration			4.000
Council of Economic Advisers			3.030
Export-Import Bank			2.941
Federal Civil Defense Admin.			2.630
Renegotiation Board			2.080
Bureau of the Budget			1.181
Tariff Commission			1.000
Federal Trade Commission			.550
Securities and Exchange Commission			.553
Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service			.552
Federal Communications Commission			.539
Federal Power Commission			.424
White House Office			.420
Reconstruction Finance Corporation			.378
Civil Aeronautics Board			.349
Interstate Commerce Commission			.341
Labor			.215
Economic Stabilization Agency			.203
National Labor Relations Board			.171
Commerce			.150
Civil Service Commission			.122
Agriculture			.122
Smithsonian Institution			.120
Interior			.106
Housing and Home Finance Agency			.097
General Accounting Office			.089
State			.076
Federal Security Agency			.075
Natl. Advis. Comm. for Aeronautics			.053

25X9

LCIA Figures are as of 18 July 1952

Agency	^{25X9} Total Personnel	Total Supergrades	Percent of Supergrades To Total Personnel
General Services Administration
Railroad Retirement Board
Treasury
Justice
Selective Service System
Department of Defense
Panama Canal Company
Veterans Administration
Post Office
Total

NOTES:

1. Personnel figures do not include military and intermittent or part-time employees.
2. Supergrade figures do not include unclassified positions paying more than GS-15 and established by Public Law or Executive Order.
3. Some agencies not included because data on supergrades not available.
4. The approved ceiling for CIA was used rather than the total on-duty personnel.